

Samantha J Morgan

"[Jesus] comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God." - 2 Corinthians 1:4

Rushtohopeministries.com - rushtohopeministries@gmail.com - Springfield, Missouri - 417.259.3706

Samantha is an infertility survivor and two time adoptive mom who loves to inspire and encourage others through life's trials. Her heart breaking yet redeeming journey from infertility to adoption demonstrates God's love for us all.

Happily married to her husband Michael for sixteen years of ups, downs, and all arounds. They have two beautiful children Rush and Hope.

Her experience as an elementary and middle school teacher for eleven years has shaped her public speaking into familiar and approachable; her day job as a group fitness instructor blends in plenty of fun and spontaneous motivation! From light humor to deep talks Samantha will keep your audience captivated beginning to end!

Samantha Founded Rush to Hope Ministries to support those dealing with infertility, child or pregnancy loss, and adoption. The ministry builds connections between women with similar paths so no one has to walk alone, and can be a great resource to churches and pastors in this area.

Featured guest speaker:

Adoption.com Adoption Summit, She Speaks Stories Pod Cast, Never Give Up Women's Conference FCCMG, Mtn Grove Pregnancy Resource Center Fundraising Banquet

"It was the best ladies retreat we've had for me. The Holy Spirit was definitely present and working in our hearts!"

-Janet, Missouri

"We were especially touched in how she expressed what a blessing the birth-mothers were to her, and how precious they are as individuals. I don't think anyone else could have impressed this point upon our audience any more clearly and lovingly. We are so thankful for her heart for women and children and her passionate message on the infinite value of Life."

-Brandi Jarrett, MGPRC director Missouri

"Hope-filled, relatable, sincere, and hilarious. Full of grace and a blessing to hear."

-Missy, Arizona

"I loved every second...What an incredible picture you painted for us about what hope really looks like."

-Christina, South Carolina

Author of Miraculously
My Own
coming 2021

"[Jesus] comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God." - 2 Corinthians 1:4

2 Corinthians 1:4 is one of my favorite verses. I truly believe we are meant to comfort others with the same comfort Jesus has shown us through our trials. Because of our trials we can boast even more loudly of God's mercy and grace. Below you will find my favorite topics God has led me to write and speak about. If you find one that draws you in, or if you would like to speak and pray about a topic for your upcoming event, contact me!

Rushtohopeministries.com - rushtohopeministries@gmail.com - Springfield, Missouri - 417.259.3706

video and audio links can be found on website or facebook

Signature Testimony: When I Can't Pray

My personal infertility struggles and adoption stories center around Romans 8:18-27. Learning an important lesson "Keep my eyes on God not on the end result I want and I will be amazed by the outcome." Leaving nothing out from the feelings of complete abandonment and depression to God's healing forgiving grace. My motherhood story is far beyond what I could have imagined, and is a beautiful testament of God's promises.

Pro Life Events: Wanted

Life is a miracle and wanted by God. Centered around Isaiah 43 I share my personal story of domestic adoption, meeting our daughter's birthmother, and how having the right person at the right time can make all the difference for a mother in a difficult situation to make a life saving choice.

What About ME!

The idea that life is suppose to be fair is running rampant. Let's take a deeper look at the story of the prodigal son in Luke 15:11-32, through the eyes of his brother. YEP, the good son. The son that did everything right. Many times in our struggles I related more to the good son. I never liked that prodigal son or how easily his father took him back. But, God has shown me it isn't my good deeds that earn His favor and someone else's blessing doesn't take mine away!

When I Grow Up I want to be like Hannah

I love the story of Hannah in 1 Samuel 1:1-20. Her story is so relatable. She was at the end of her rope. Pleaged with sadness, anger, bitterness, and a fellow wife who wouldn't leave her alone about her short comings. Instead of lashing out she cried out to God, and here is where we find the purpose in her waiting.

I also love talking with teen girls!
From dating, waiting for marriage, body image, to what God has for their future.

"I want to get to know you and what you want the audience to take away from your event.

With prayer and understanding we can find a topic that is just what God has in store!"

Love and support -
Samantha

Media Qustions:

- 1 Have you always been a writer?
- 2 How did you come up with the title of your book?
- 3 What was the most difficult part of writing Miraculously My Own?
- 4 What surprised you the most about writing the book?
- 5 What was the pivoital moment you knew you were ready to adopt?
- 6 Do you have a favorite verse that helped you get through the hardest times?
- 7 What advice do you have for the young married women struggling to build their family?

Miraculously MY OWN

"A wonderful book for those waiting on God to move in their own life, and a must-read for those traveling the infertility or adoption journey."

One woman's inspiring journey of infertility, faith, and adoption

Samantha J Morgan
Founder of Rush to Hope Ministries